

ICAR Krishi Vigyan Kendra Ariyalur District, Tamil Nadu

Training on Agroforestry

ICAR-KVK, Ariyalur and Tamil Nadu Newsprint and Paper Ltd., (TNPL) jointly organized Training on Agroforestry on 23.01.2021 at Meensuruti village.

Dr.G.Alagukannan, Senior Scientist and Head delivered welcome address followed by described the KVK mandatory and the aim of the training and need of training due to increase the farmers income double through increasing the cropping intensity.

Dr.Chezhian, Senior Manager, TNPL, Karur gave presidential address and motivated the farmers to cultivate short duration and high yield Casurina hybrids and cultivation techniques to produce quality pulp trees. Mr.Rajasekaran, Area Manager, TNPL, Jayankondam explained about farm forestry schemes to small and marginal farmers benefits.

Mr.M.Thirumalaivasan, SMS (Agronomy) serves as resource person and explained different agro forestry models, farm forestry cropping pattern, importance of intercrop for year around cash flow, use of waste decomposer in agro forestry to avoid burning and water conservation technologies. Conducted method demonstration on water conservation techniques like Climate Resilient Agriculture (CRA) tree planting method, Hydrogel were given to farmers. 126 farmers, 6 Assistant field officers of TNPL were participated in this training programme.

Lecture deliver about Agroforestry Model for Ariyalur District