

National wide Tree Plantation Campaign

On 16.07.2021, ICAR - Krishi Vigyan Kendra (CREED), celebrated the ICAR's 93rd Foundation by conducting tree plantation campaign. The programme was conducted at KVK Campus, Cholamadevi and at Keelapalur Village of Thirumanur block, Ariyalur district. At KVK Campus, Dr.V.Nadanasbapathy, Chaiman, CREED KVK distributed saplings to the farmers and planted Guava species at KVK campus. He also created awareness on importance of tree plantation. Dr.G.Alagukannan, Senior Scientist and Head of ICAR-KVK, Ariyalur gave lecture on horticultural plants, planting methods and its management. Further Mr.Y.Raja Joslin, SMS (Hort) explained about tree crops, species available and government schemes available. Mrs.S.Shobana, SMS (Home Science), Mr.S.Prabhu, Programme Assistant (Farm Manager) and Programme assistant Arivuselvi were participated and delivered lecture in tree planting and environmental protection.

At Thirumanur block, Awareness meeting on tree plantation was conducted. In this programme, Joint Director of Agriculture, Ariyalur district inaugurated the programme and gave presidential address. Assistant Director of Agriculture Mrs.Latha gave lecture on importance of tree plantation followed by Subject Matter Specialists Dr.A.Rajkala, Mr.AshokKumar and Mr.M.Thirumalaivasan were participated and delivered lecture on tree planting. Dr.K.Karthik, SMS (Animal Science) gave lecture on vaccination and livestock management. At the end, Dr.A.Rajkala, SMS (Agricultural Extension) gave vote of thanks. More than 60 farmers actively participated in the programme.

