

ICAR Krishi Vigyan Kendra (CREED) Ariyalur District, TamilNadu

Significant activity on Training to Extension Functionaries

On 25.02.2022 ICAR CREED Krishi Vigyan Kendra conducted training in collaboration with ICAR - Central Institute of Agricultural engineering, Coimbatore to extension functionaries (Dept. Of Agriculture and Agricultural Engineering) on "Zero till Seed drill for rice follow pulses" at KVK campus. Dr.G.Alagukannan, Senior Scientist and Head, ICAR-CREED KVK, Ariyalur gave introductory speech about KVK and its mandates. Mr.K.Palanisamy Joint Director Agriculture Ariyalur gives presidential address over the program. Further Dr.S.Elamathi, Assistant Professor, Agronomy from TRRI, Aduthurai gave technical lecture on Zero till agricultural practices and its importance in rice follows. M.Thirumalaivasan, SMS Agronomy, CREED KVK delivered lecture on micro nutrients roll in crop production and IPM practices for pulses cultivation.

ICAR- Central Institute of Agricultural engineering, Coimbatore Principle scientist Dr.Senthil kumar gave deep details on agricultural implements for effective cultivation and intercultural operations aspects and Dr. Muthamil Selvan, Principle Scientist conducted demonstration on Zero till seed drill for rice follow pulses at Mr.Ramesh, Cholamadevi field.. At the end, M.Thirumalaivasan, SMS Agronomy CREED KVK gave vote thanks. Around 25 Extension official and 5 technical staff participated in the programme.

